

Equality Policy

Version 1 May 2014

East Coast Gymnastics is committed to promoting a best-practice environment, where every gymnast is treated with respect and dignity. No personnel or gymnast or any related third party should feel threatened, degraded on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, physical characteristics, health, religious or political beliefs.

East Coast Gymnastics is responsible for ensuring that all individuals receive the same treatment, regardless of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, physical characteristics, health, religious beliefs or political beliefs.

This policy aims to prevent/tackle any potential/current discrimination, whether indirect¹ or direct², which involves gymnasts and any member of East Coast Gymnastics personnel.

East Coast Gymnastics is responsible for:

- equal treatment of all individuals who have the right to participate and enjoy sport, recreation and allied occupations
- all personnel involved with East Coast Gymnastics are, responsible for creating an open and friendly environment for all gymnasts
- preventing discriminatory behaviour, which will not be tolerated in East Coast Gymnastics, taking any allegations or incidents of discrimination or any type of unfair treatment extremely seriously and responding to them swiftly.

It is ultimately the responsibility of the Club Administrator to ensure that this policy is published and accessible to all personnel, gymnasts and any relevant third parties. However, individual coaches are responsible for ensuring this information is fully understood by their gymnasts who commence sessions in their area.

Should you wish to discuss any matter or voice a grievance in relation to the above in confidence, please contact the current welfare officer whose details are available on the latest introductory booklet or displayed as you came in. or, alternatively, gymnasts may follow the Gymnast Complaints Procedure.

The statement of equal opportunities above is supported and underpinned by the broader Equal Opportunities Policy of British Gymnastics, available at www.british-gymnastics.org

² Direct - this is where you openly treat any sector of the community less favourably than others. For example, you may state in a job advertisement that men are only welcome to apply for a particular job vacancy. This is direct discrimination and is unacceptable.
